

Come Away In Karine Polwart

- 1 Welcome into the house, where we have bread to eat and room at the table
 Welcome into the house, where we sit down to meet with stranger and neighbour
 Welcome into the house
Come away, come away in. Come away, come away in
The storm it is rising but we'll hold back the wind. Come away, come away in
- 2 Welcome into the house where there's an open door and the fire is burning
 Welcome into the house where we can rest a while from the world and its turning
 Welcome into the house
Come away, come away in. Come away, come away in
The storm it is rising but we'll hold back the wind. Come away, come away in
- All you sisters and mothers, come away in
 All you fathers and brothers, come away in
 All the widows lamenting, come away in
 All the exiles dissenting, come away in
 All the lost and forgotten, come away in
 And the battered and broken, come away in
 All the motherless children, come away in
 We welcome you all into the house
Come away, come away in. Come away, come away in
The storm it is rising but we'll hold back the wind. Come away, come away in
